科目概要情報 / Course description

講座概要 / Course description	The Diploma Programme geography course integrates both physical and human geography, and ensures that students acquire elements of both scientific and socio-economic methodologies. Geography takes advantage of its position to examine relevant concepts and ideas from a wide variety of disciplines. This helps students develop an appreciation of, and a respect for, alternative approaches, viewpoints and ideas. The geography course embodies global and international awareness in several distinct ways. It examines key global issues, such as poverty, sustainability and climate change. It considers examples and detailed case studies at a variety of scales, from local to regional, national and international.
到達目標 / Course objectives	The aims of the geography syllabus at SL and HL are to enable students to: - develop an understanding of the interrelationships between people, places, spaces and the environment - develop a concern for human welfare and the quality of the environment, and an understanding of the need for planning and sustainable management - appreciate the relevance of geography in analysing contemporary issues and challenges, and develop a global perspective of diversity and change.
