

Tokyo Metropolitan Kokusai High School Online Application Procedures

For the International Baccalaureate Course Entrance Examination, applications will be accepted online.

Applicants are required to enter the necessary information on the application website and submit the data to our school. (Applicants currently enrolled in public or private junior high schools in Tokyo are required to obtain approval from their junior high school after entering the information.)

For applicants enrolled in junior high schools in Tokyo, application documents such as school transcripts will be collected and submitted to our school by the junior high school.

Applicants other than those mentioned above should place all required application documents in the designated envelope and submit them directly to our school by using a traceable and secure method such as registered mail.
